

Letter to Royal Household

Dear Sir

The Parish of Fressingfield in Suffolk is deeply saddened to learn of the death of our Monarch Queen Elizabeth II.

We send our heartfelt condolences to all the royal family.

We are a small parish of some 1200 people, from all generations. For many of us we have only ever known one queen. We hold her in the deepest affection and are for ever grateful for the dutiful way she cared for all of us in this country and the wider commonwealth and realms.

Although she reached a grand age it has still come as something of a shock to realise that her constancy is no longer there.

We will be celebrating her life and mourning her death with the rest of the nation and in our way in Fressingfield.

Our thoughts are with you, your Royal Highness King Charles III, as you take on what may well suddenly seem a daunting task. Undoubtedly one which you will approach with the same care and diligence as Her Majesty The Queen.

Our thoughts are with you all.

I have the honour to remain, Sir, your Royal Highness's most humble and obedient servant.

Diana Warne

Chair of Fressingfield Parish Council
